This viewpoint is located approximately 3.7km southeast of Kinlochewe.

Heading northwest out of Kinlochewe on the A832 towards Gairloch, continue for approximately 2.8km at which point you will reach the southwestern shores of Loch Maree. Drive for a further 1km and then look out for the entrance to the Beinn Eighe Trails car park on your right hand side. Turn in here and park up.

Now on foot, walk to the far end of the car park and take the 'Mountain Trail' that passes through the underpass beneath the main road. Once through, there is a bridge - do not cross it, instead keep to the trail on the left.

From this point on it is strongly recommended that the user sources designated mapping for this walk as it is across steep and rough ground.

The camera location is at the summit next to the stone cairn.
